In this talk I will discuss an application of the inductive version of the moving frames method due to Irina Kogan to the invariant theory of Killing tensors. The method is successfully employed to solve the problem of the determination of isometry group invariants (covariants) of Killing tensors of arbitrary valence defined in the Minkowski plane. This is joint work with Roman Smirnov.