YANG ZHANG, Brandon University
Computing Valuation Popov Forms

Popov forms and weak Popov forms of matrices over noncommutative valuation domains are defined and discussed. Two new algorithms to construct these Popov forms are given, along with a description of some of their applications.

This is joint work with Mark Giesbrecht and George Labahn.