BRIAN COOK, University of British Columbia

Many Variable Forms in the Primes

We will discuss the solubility of the equation $F(x) = v$, where $F$ is a symmetric integral form of fixed degree $d$ in $n$ variables $x = (x_1, \ldots, x_n)$, under the condition that $x_i$ is prime for each $1 \leq i \leq n$. 