Order and spectrum preserving maps on positive operators
Peter Semrl

Abstract. We describe the general form of surjective maps on the cone of all positive operators which preserve order and spectrum. The result is optimal as shown by counterexamples. As an easy consequence we characterize surjective order and spectrum preserving maps on the set of all self-adjoint operators.