Periodic solutions of an indefinite singular equation arising from the Kepler problem on the sphere
Robert Hakl and Manuel Zamora

Abstract. We study a second-order ordinary differential equation coming from the Kepler problem on $S^2$. The forcing term under consideration is a piecewise constant with singular nonlinearity which changes sign. We establish necessary and sufficient conditions to the existence and multiplicity of $T$-periodic solutions.