Functional Equations and Fourier Analysis

Dilian Yang

Abstract. By exploring the relations among functional equations, harmonic analysis and representation theory, we give a unified and very accessible approach to solve three important functional equations — the d'Alembert equation, the Wilson equation, and the d'Alembert long equation — on compact groups.

Department of Mathematics and Statistics, University of Windsor, Windsor, ON N9B 3P4
e-mail: dyang@uwindsor.ca